How We Will Calculate Your Balance: The method used to calculate your balance is called "average daily balance (including new purchases)." See cardholder agreement for more details.

Variable Rate Information: Your APRs will vary with the market based on the Prime Rate. The Prime Rate is the highest FI prime loan rate as published by the Wall Street Journal in its Money Rates Section on the 14th day (or the next business day if the 14th is not a business day) of the calendar month preceding the first day of the billing period. If the Periodic Rate(s) and corresponding Annual Percentage Rate(s) increase, your interest charges will increase and your minimum payment may be greater.

Billing Rights: Information on your rights to dispute transactions and how to exercise those rights is provided in the Cardholder Agreement that will be provided to you before you can begin using your new card.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT PROCEDURES FOR OPENING A NEW ACCOUNT: To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents.

CARDHOLDER AGREEMENT: You agree to be bound by the terms of the Cardholder Agreement, which will be sent with the card. You also agree that the Cardholder Agreement and the account are governed by Arkansas and Federal law. The terms of your account, including rates and fees, are subject to change to the extent permitted by law.

ARBITRATION AGREEMENT: (Agreement to Arbitrate) Arbitration is a method of deciding disputes outside the court system. Your Cardholder Agreement will include an Arbitration Provision (the "Provision"), which governs when and how any disputes you and we may have will be arbitrated instead of decided in court.
